CHARACTER Q&A:
LADY MACBETH

We spent some time with the much-maligned Lady Macbeth to find out what really makes her tick. Here's what she had to say…

Hi there, I'm Lady Macbeth, an ambitious and cunning woman who pushes her husband to seize power, but ultimately falls victim to guilt and madness in Shakespeare's tragic play.

WHO IS YOUR BEST FRIEND?

My best friend is my husband, Macbeth. We share the same ambitions and work as a team to achieve our goals. He's the light of my life, the apple of my eye, my world, my everything!

[Editor's note: When we recently interviewed Macbeth, he told us his best friend was a guy called Banquo. Our interviewer felt too embarassed to mention this during their time with Lady Macbeth, but has noted it here, in the final, publicly released edit of the interview.]

WHAT'S YOUR FAVOURITE FILM?

My favorite film is Coraline, as it's a dark and twisted tale that delves into the dangers of desire and the consequences of pursuing a seemingly perfect life.

HOW WOULD YOU DESCRIBE YOUR PERSONAL STYLE?

I would describe my personal style as elegant and powerful, reflecting my strong character and desire for control in both my appearance and actions.

PINEAPPLE ON PIZZA. YES OR NO?

No, pineapple on pizza's not my thing! As a lady of refined taste, I prefer more traditional and savoury toppings.

TELL US A JOKE ABOUT YOURSELF.

Why did Lady Macbeth start a bakery? Because she kneaded power! [Laughs] I came up with that ages ago. It's good, isn't it! My husband loved it when I told him.

WHAT'S YOUR SECRET SKILL?

My secret skill is persuasion; I have a way with words and can influence those around me, often convincing them to see things from my perspective or to take action in my favour.

And that's me, Lady Macbeth! I hope you enjoyed getting to know a little bit about my life. Remember, ambition can be a powerful driving force, but it's important to consider the consequences and maintain a balance in our pursuits! To be absolutely clear, folks: regicide is a no-no.
