

CHARACTER Q&A: OTHELLO

Shakespeare's tragic general sits down to chat skill, style and one VERY surprising film choice. Here's the lowdown...

TELL US YOUR STORY IN ONE SENTENCE

Hey there, I'm Othello, a noble and accomplished Venetian general who falls in love with the beautiful Desdemona, but ends up tragically misled by my own jealousy in Shakespeare's play.

WHO IS YOUR BEST FRIEND?

My best friend is Cassio, a loyal and capable lieutenant who serves under me and supports me in both my military and personal life.

WHO IS YOUR WORST ENEMY AND WHY?

My worst enemy is Iago, a manipulative and deceitful ensign who takes advantage of my trust, ultimately leading to my downfall. And the worst part? No one really knows why he did it!

WHAT'S YOUR FAVOURITE FILM?

My favorite film is The Lion King, as it's a powerful tale of love, betrayal, and redemption that reminds me of the dramatic turns in my own story. (It's got even more in common with the story of Prince Hamlet!)

HOW WOULD YOU DESCRIBE YOUR PERSONAL STYLE?

Bold and regal - just like me!

PINEAPPLE ON PIZZA. YES OR NO?

Of course not! As a Venetian, I prefer the classic Italian pizza toppings: mozzarella, tomato, and basil.

WHAT'S YOUR SECRET SKILL?

My not-so-secret skill is strategy. As a military leader, I've developed a keen ability to assess situations and devise effective plans to achieve my goals.

And that's me, Othello! I hope you enjoyed getting to know a little bit about my life. Remember, trust is important in relationships, but so is communication – always seek the truth and never let jealousy cloud your judgment!
