

CHARACTER Q&A: ROMEO & JULIET

We sat down with the dynamic duo to chat secret skills, favourite hobbies and biggest regrets. Here's what they told us.

Hello, we're Romeo and Juliet, star-crossed lovers from feuding families in Verona who fall deeply in love and ultimately meet a tragic end in Shakespeare's most famous romantic play.

WHO IS YOUR BEST FRIEND?

Romeo: My best friend is Mercutio, a witty and loyal companion who always brings laughter and excitement to my life.

Juliet: My best friend is my Nurse, who has always been there for me, providing guidance, support, and love.

WHO IS YOUR WORST ENEMY?

Both: Our worst enemy is the long-standing feud between our families, the Capulets and Montagues, which creates barriers and conflict in our love story.

WHAT ARE YOUR FAVOURITE HOBBIES?

Romeo: I enjoy writing poetry and expressing my deepest emotions through words.

Juliet: I love spending time in my beautiful garden, finding solace in the peace and tranquility of nature.

DO YOU REGRET SOME OF YOUR ACTIONS IN YOUR STORY?

Juliet: Sure, we regret the impulsive decisions we made in our youth, but we also believe that our love story has the power to teach others about the importance of communication, understanding, and breaking down barriers.

WOULD YOU RATHER FIGHT ONE HORSE-SIZED DUCK, OR 100 DUCK-SIZED HORSES?

Romeo: We'd choose to fight 100 duck-sized horses, as it's symbolic of the many smaller obstacles we faced in our love story and tackled together.

WHAT'S YOUR SECRET SKILL?

Juliet: Our great skill is our unwavering devotion to one another; our love shines brightly even in the darkest of times, reminding everyone of the power of true love.

And that's us, Romeo and Juliet! We hope you enjoyed getting to know a little bit about our life together. Remember, love has the power to break down barriers and unite people, but it's important to approach it with wisdom and understanding!
